VOLUME 8 INDEX

NO. 1, FALL 1997	1–102
NO. 2, WINTER 1997	103–204
NO. 3, SPRING 1998	205–306
NO. 4, SUMMER 1998	307–440

A

Academic centers: management support organization collaboration with, 91–97; role of, in increasing nonprofit effectiveness, 92, 93

Accountability: community, of Community Care Network partnerships, 325, 326–327, 328, 329; to donors' charitable intent, 65–76, 190; IRS 990 Return and, 144–146, 150, 151; of state funding bodies in Australia, 51–63. See also Public sector accountability

Accounting standards, 146–147

Action research model, applied to change management consulting, 158, 162, 167

Activists, emotional labor of, 179–180. See also Political advocacy role

Adobe Acrobat, 293, 294

"Adoption of the Corporate Governance Model by Nonprofit Organizations, The," 223–242

Advanced Research Projects Agency Network (ARPANET), 297

Aging, health services for. See Generalist Physician Initiative; Geriatric Interdisciplinary Team Training Program

Ahern, P, 405–406, 407

Alexander, J. A.: "Governance in Public-Private Community Health Partnerships: A Survey of the Community Care Network," 311–332; "The Adoption of the Corporate Governance Model by Nonprofit Organizations," 223–242

American Hospital Association, 230

American Humantics program, 397

American Society of Association Executives (ASAE), 123–124, 125

Amnesty International, 38

Anderson, A., Ethics for Fundraisers, reviewed, 189–191

Annual Survey of Hospitals, 230

Area Resources File, 230

Arizona State University (ASU), 264–265

Articles: "A Model for Consulting to Help Effect Change in Organizations," 157–169; "Communication and Donor Relations: A Social Skills Perspective," 107–119; "Contracting and Patterns of Nonprofit Governance," 243–259; "Corporate Philanthropy and United Way: Challenges for the Year 2000," 19–30; "Do Intentional Efforts to Improve Boards Really Work? The Views of Nonprofit CEOs," 333–348; "Efficiency in Religious Organizations," 3–18; "Executive Compensation in the Nonprofit Sector," 207–221; "Female Participation in Association Governance and Political Representation: Women as Executive Directors, Board Members, Lobbyists, and Political Action Committee Directors," 121–139; "Fidelity in Philanthropy: Two Challenges to Community Foundations," 65–76; "Governance in Public-Private Community Health Partnerships: A Survey of the Community Care Network," 311–332; "Government, Funded Nonprofits, and Accountability," 51–64; "Innovation, Professional Interests, and Nonprofit Organizations: The Case of Health Care in Poland," 363–385; "Resource Centers: A Foundation's Strategy to Support Nonprofit Grantees," 261–274; "Structures of Multinational Nonprofit Organizations, 31–49; "The 990 Return: Beyond the Internal Revenue Service," 141–155; "The Adoption of the Corporate Governance Model by Nonprofit Organizations," 223–242; "The Views of Nonprofit Executives on Educating Nonprofit Managers," 349–362

Arts organizations: commercial success of, in Riverdance case study, 403–411; executive compensation in, 211; governance patterns in, 255

Aspen Institute, 94

 © Jossey-Bass Publishers

Assertiveness, 113
Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action (ARNOVA), 95
Associations: affiliation with, and governance patterns, 253–256; in America, 123–124; female executive directors of, prevalence and factors in, 125–132; female head lobbyists and PAC directors in, prevalence and factors in, 132–136; female participation in governance of, 121–139; government lobbying structures of, 124–125, 132–136; minority professional, 137; women's professional, 136–137
Associations Yellow Book, 122
Australia: nonprofit sector changes in, 51–52; service delivery changes in, 53–54; state accountability in, 52, 54–63; state accountability in, constraints on, 54–61; state-nonprofit relationships in, 51–64
Australian Department of Family and Community Services (DFACS), 54–60
Ayres, L. P., 78

B

Baron, P., "College of St. Monica: A College's Difficult Choice," 183–188
Beckhard, R., The Leader of the Future: New Visions, Strategies, and Practices for the Next Era, reviewed, 413–420
Bell, D., 416
Beres, Z., "Essential Emotions: The Place of Passion in a Feminist Network," 171–182
Berresford, S., interviewed, 287–292
Bielefeld, W., "Structures of Multinational Nonprofit Organizations," 31–49
Billis, D., 205; "Editor's Notes," 1–2, 103–105
Board characteristics, of nonprofit hospital adoption of corporate governance model, 230, 231
Board composition: and governance patterns, 250, 252–253; and organizational structure, 43
Board-dominant governance, 247–249
Board effectiveness models, 342–343
Board intentional change efforts, 333–348; chief executive officers' view of, 334–348; durability of, 338–339; impact of, on board effectiveness, 333, 337–339; impact of, on organizational performance, 333, 343–345; initiators of, 341–342; literature on, 333–334; models used in, 342–343; problems that prompted, 339–341; programmatic change theories and, 334–335; relationships between process and outcomes of, 339–343; study of, methodology of, 335–336; triggers of, 341
Board legitimacy, 250, 252–253, 255
Boards: buffer role played by, 245–247; executive leadership and, 251–252; gaining fundraising plan support of, 279–280; and governance of contracting organizations, 243–259; as initiators of board change efforts, 341–342; political advocate role played by, 245–247; resistance of, to fundraising, 284; and shared governance with staff, 243–259; women in, prevalence of, 122, 125; women's representation in, and likelihood of women executive directors, 128–129, 130–132
Bolman, L. G., Leading with Soul: An Uncommon Journey of Spirit, reviewed, 413–420
Book Reviews: "Ethical Issues in Fundraising," 189–191; "Humanistic Leadership in the 1990s: Heart, Soul, and Head," 413–420; "Understanding Major Gift Donors," 85–87
Boundary spanning, 109–111
Brandeis University, Heller Graduate School for Advanced Studies in Social Welfare, 397
Brudney, J. L., "Do Intentional Efforts to Improve Boards Really Work? The Views of Nonprofit CEOs," 333–348
Buck, B., 66
Buck Trust court case, 66–72; commentary on, 435–437
Budapest Anarchist Group, 173–174
Budget size: and female governance, 126; impact of board change on, 344–345. See also Corporation size; Organization size
Buffer role, 245–247; governance patterns and, 249–255
"Building the Nonprofit Sector Knowledge Base: Can Academic Centers and Management Support Organizations Come Together?", 89–97
Bulletin Board, 99–101, 203–204, 305–306, 439–440

Butler, J., 407
Bystander governance (of government relations), 247–249; factors in, 250–257

C

California, 278
Canadian board change study, 333–348. See also Board intentional change efforts
Capital campaigns, donor communication and, 108
Carnegie Council on Adolescent Development: critical tasks of youth development identified by, 388; youth development organizations identified by, 389–390
Carver's board governance model, 342–343
Case Western University, 108
CD-ROM's, nonprofit management research sources on, 293–295
Center for Health Care Strategies (CHCS), 264, 273
Center for Regional Economics Issues, Case Western Reserve University, 82
Center for Youth Development and Policy Research, 395–396
Center on Philanthropy, 95
Center on Urban Poverty, Case Western Reserve University, 83
Central organization-local unit arrangements, 34–37. See also Organizational structures
Centralization: versus decentralization, in multinational nonprofit structures, 31–49; of decision making in Australian funding bodies, 58–59; and donor relations, 110
Centre for Voluntary Organisation, 103
Change agents, 342
Change management: approaches to, 158–159; in atypical organizational form, 162–164; for board change, 333–334; consulting model for, 157–169; in health care organization case studies, 159–164; NML articles about, 195–196; programmatic change approach to, 334–335; propositions about, 164–166; in typical organizational form, 160–162. See also Board intentional change efforts
Change process, stages in, 334–335
Chapin Hall, 397
Charitable gift funds, 73
Charting the Future, 390, 393–394
Chief executives. See Executive directors
Child Welfare League of America (CWLA), 387
Children's center case study. See Oakes Children's Center
Chronicle of Higher Education, 212
Chronicle of Philanthropy, 209, 263
Cinnéide, B. Ó., "The Nonprofit Origins and Impact of Riverdance: The Show That Became More Than an Enterprise," 403–411
Citizens for Choice (Hungary), 172, 174
Clark, H. T., 79
Cleveland Foundation, 77–78
Cleveland (Ohio) school system, 78–79
Cleveland Tomorrow, 82
Coates, N., "Model for Consulting to Help Effect Change in Organizations, A," 157–169
Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha (Irish Dance Commission), 404–405
College of St. Monica, 183–188; characteristics of, 183; faculty disparities in, 185–188; leadership changes in, 183–184, 185; School of Adult Studies implementation and problems of, 184–186; schools of, 184–185
"College of St. Monica: A College's Difficult Choice," 183–188
Comfort, M. E., "Governance in Public-Private Community Health Partnerships: A Survey of the Community Care Network," 311–332
Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann (CCE), 405
Coming of the Post-Industrial Society, The (Bell), 416
Commentary, 435–437
Commission-based compensation plans, 190–191
Commonwealth, 263
Communication, among multiple demonstration sites, 271–272
"Communication and Donor Relations: A Social Skills Perspective," 107–119
Communication in donor relations: importance of, 107–109; social skills and, 111–116; theories related to, 109–111. See also Donor relations; Social skills
Communications Network of Philanthropy, 262
Community Care Network (CCN) partnerships, 311–332; characteristics of, 314, 316,

322, 326; clarification of roles, responsibilities, and relationships of, 324–326, 328; collective process of, 312–313, 323; community accountability of, 325, 326–327, 328, 329; frequency of meetings of, 317–318, 320–321; governance characteristics of, 313–314, 315, 317; governance issues and challenges of, 327–329; governing body decision-making authority in, 321–323; governing body size of, 317–318, 319; growth and development issues of, 327–329; incorporation status of, 314, 317–319; key attributes of, 312–313; length of operation of, 317–318, 319–320; progress on governance activities of, 324–327; rural versus urban, 321–322, 324, 325, 330; size of, 322, 323; study of, methods and measures of, 312–313, 315–316
Community foundations: as catalysts of social services studies, 77–84; collaborative creation of, 80–81; court cases about, 66–75, 435–437; donor alternatives to, 73–75; executive compensation in, 217, 218–219; fidelity/infidelity of, to donor intentions, 65–75; prevalence of, 81
Community health partnerships: collaborative organization of, 311–312, 329–330; governance in, 311–332; organizational issues of, 311–312. See also Community Care Network
Community Service Society of New York, 72–73
Compensation, executive. See Executive compensation
Confidentiality, and prospect research, 190
Conflict: in change management consultation case study, 162–164, 165; dialogue approach to, 158
Conradh na Gaeilge, 404
Consultants: for board change efforts, 342; expectations of, 165; limitations of specialized, 165, 166
Consulting on organizational change, 157–169; approaches to, 158–159; in health care organization case studies, 159–164; long-term, systemic model for, 159–167
Contingency theory, 42
"Contracting and Patterns of Nonprofit Governance," 243–259
Contracting organizations. See Government-contracting/government-funded organizations
Cooperative structures, 36–37
Corporate business management techniques, nonprofit use of, 198; for executive compensation setting, 219. See also For-profit sector
Corporate governance model for nonprofit hospitals, 224–244; board characteristics and adoption of, 231; competition and adoption of, 227, 233, 235, 236, 338; corporate restructuring and adoption of, 229, 232, 234, 235, 236–237; factors in adoption of, 226–239; multihospital system (MHSs) membership and adoption of, 228–229, 234, 235, 236; organization size and adoption of, 227, 234, 235, 236, 237–238; organizational performance and adoption of, 227, 233, 235–236; philanthropic governance model versus, 225; in public versus private hospitals, 229, 234, 235, 236; rationale for, 223–224; resource munificence and adoption of, 228, 232, 233–234, 235, 236, 237–238; study methods and measures of, 229–234
Corporate philanthropy: to health and human services, 19–20, 27–28; nonprofit competition for, 20; of service versus manufacturing sectors, 22, 24, 25, 26; strategic, 19–28. See also Strategic philanthropy
"Corporate Philanthropy and United Way: Challenges for the Year 2000," 19–30
Corporate structures, 35; in multinational nonprofits, 46
Corporation size, impact of, on corporate contributions, 22, 24, 25–26
Council of Economic Opportunity, 80
Council on Foundations, 71
Crittenden, W., 194
Cultural organizations: commercial success of, in Riverdance case study, 403–411. See also Arts organizations
Cy pres doctrine, 68, 72

D

Dancing masters, Irish, 404
Data envelopment analysis (DEA), 4, 8–10;

additive model of, 16–17; regression analysis versus, 16; of U.S. Catholic Church priest shortage, 10–16
Deaconate, expansion of, 5–6, 15–16
Deal, T. E., Leading with Soul: An Uncommon Journey of Spirit, reviewed, 413–420
Decentralization: versus centralization, in multinational nonprofit structures, 31–49; and donor relations, 110. See also Centralization
Decision-making authority, in Community Care Network partnerships, 321–323
Decision-making units (DMUs), 8–10. See also Data envelopment analysis
Dee, J. R., "Communication and Donor Relations: A Social Skills Perspective," 107–119
Degree types, for nonprofit management education, 356–360
Demographic change, and Ford Foundation funding, 289–290
Development professionals: as boundary-spanning agents, 109–111; communication with donors and, 107–119; public trust of, 108; social skills for, 111–116; work of, 108. See also Fundraisers; Fundraising consultants
Devolution of government, 198, 199; foundations' role and, 287–288
DeWitt Wallace–Reader's Digest Fund, 393, 394, 396
Dialogue approach to conflict, 158
Directory of Internships in Youth Development (National Collaboration for Youth), 397–398
Dissemination strategies: of foundations, 262–274; of health care in Poland, 363–385; resource centers as, 263–274
Diversity, of donors, 108
"Do Intentional Efforts to Improve Boards Really Work? The Views of Nonprofit CEOs," 333–348
Doherty, M., 407, 408, 410
Donations, reliance on, and organizational structure, 39–41
Donor relations, 282–283; communication in, 107–119; elements in, 107; institutional reliance on, 108; social skills and, 111–116; structural models of, 110; systems theory applied to, 109–111. See also Communication in donor relations; Major donors; Social skills
Donors: accountability to intent of, 65–75, 190; alternatives of, to community foundations, 73–75; community foundation fidelity to, 65–75; constraints of, on executive compensation, 210–211, 214, 215; diversity of, 108; income of, and generosity of, 421–434. See also Major donors
Downey, B., 408–409
Drucker, P., 414–415, 417
Drucker Foundation, 414–415

E

Economic liberalism, in OECD nations, 53
Editor's Notes, 1–2, 103–105, 205–206, 307–309
Education: for nonprofit managers, 349–362; for youth development professionals, 392–393, 395–397, 399
Educational institutions. See Higher education institutions
Efficiency, and emotional labor in alternative organizations, 179
"Efficiency in Religious Organizations," 3–18
Efficiency measurement/measures, 4, 8–10; IRS 990 Return and, 145–146, 150. See also Data envelopment analysis
Efficiency rating, 9–10. See also Data envelopment analysis
Elite philanthropy, 85–86
Elliott, B., "Nonprofit Organizations and the Internet," 297–303
Elliott, D., Ethics of Asking, The: Dilemmas in Higher Education Fund Raising, reviewed, 189–191
Emotional labor, 178–180
Emotional work, 178–179
Emotions: and external organizational relations, 177; in Hungarian Feminist Network, 175–178; and internal organizational issues, 175–177; organization theory and, 171, 180–181; as positive forces, 177–178; role of, in nonprofit organizations, 171–182; as social glue versus explosives, 178; in volunteer organizations, 178–180
Empathy, 113
Environmental organizations, executive compensation in, 211

Environmental uncertainty, and donor relations, 108–109
Environmental variation, and multinational nonprofit organizational structures, 43–46
"Essential Emotions: The Place of Passion in a Feminist Network," 171–182
Ethical code of conduct, for youth development professionals, 393
Ethical issues, in fundraising, 189–191
"Ethical Issues in Fundraising," 189–191
Ethics for Fundraisers (Anderson), reviewed, 189–191
Ethics of Asking, The: Dilemmas in Higher Education Fund Raising (Elliott), reviewed, 189–191
European Laboratory for Particle Physics (CERN), 298, 299
Executive compensation, 207–221; in arts organizations, 211; constraints on, 210–212, 219; donor constraints on, 210–211, 214, 215; empirical study of, 209–219; in environmental organizations, 211; in foundations, 217–219; gender and, 211, 212, 215, 216, 218, 219; governance constraints on, 218–219; in health research organizations, 211; in higher education organizations, 211, 212–214; in hospitals, 211, 216–217; ideological constraints on, 211–212, 214, 215; nonprofit market segment and, 211, 212–219; organization size and, 210, 213, 214–215, 216, 217, 218, 219; performance-based, 209, 211; public opinion on, 208; religious affiliation and, 211–212, 213, 215; in social services organizations, 214–216; theoretical issues in, 207–209; university affiliation and, 217
"Executive Compensation in the Nonprofit Sector," 207–221
Executive directors: gender of, as factor in hiring male lobbyists/PAC directors, 132, 135; as initiators of board change efforts, 341–342; leadership of, and governance patterns, 250, 251–252, 255; NML articles on, 194, 195; views of, on board change efforts, 334–348; views of, on nonprofit manager education, 351–360; women as, prevalence and factors in, 122, 125–132. See also Leadership; Nonprofit managers; Staff, executive
Expense allocation, on IRS 990 Return, 147–148, 149, 151
Expressive dimension of leadership, 417–419

F

FASB 116, 117, 146–147
FC Search: The Foundation Center's Database on CD-ROM, Version 2.0, reviewed, 293–295
Features: "An Interview with Steven A. Minter," 77–84; "An Interview with Susan Berresford," 287–292; "College of St. Monica: A College's Difficult Choice," 183–188; "The Nonprofit Origins and Impact of Riverdance: The Show That Became More Than an Enterprise," 403–411
Federal cutbacks: influence of, on accountability pressures, 145; influence of, on corporate philanthropy, 19, 20
Federative structures, 35–36; change management and, 159, 162–164; in multinational nonprofits, 45–46
Feeney, S., "Humanistic Leadership in the 1990s: Heart, Soul, and Head," 413–420
Feiseanna, 404
"Female Participation in Association Governance and Political Representation: Women as Executive Directors, Board Members, Lobbyists, and Political Action Committee Directors," 121–139
Feminist organizations, role of passion in, 171–182
Fidelity Charitable Gift fund, 435–436
"Fidelity in Philanthropy: Two Challenges to Community Foundations," 65–76; commentary on, 435–437
Fidelity Investments, 73
File, K. M., Seven Faces of Philanthropy, The: A New Approach to Cultivating Major Donors, reviewed, 85–87
File Transfer Protocol (FTP), 299
Financial reporting, 146–147. See also Internal Revenue Service 990 Return
Financial resource management, NML articles on, 194, 195, 196
Financial statements, and IRS 990 Returns, 145–147, 149
"First Seven Years of Nonprofit Management and Leadership, The," 193–201

Flatley, M., 405, 408, 409–410
Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann (All-Ireland Music Festival), 405
For-profit sector: executive compensation in, 207–208; nonprofit hospitals and, 216. See also Corporate business management techniques; Corporate governance model
Ford Foundation, 263, 287–292, 436
Foundation Center, The, 263, 273, 293–295, 294–295
Foundation Directory, The, 217, 262
Foundation News, 263
Foundations: CD-ROM resource on, 294–295; executive compensation in, 217–219; international funding of, 288–289; private, 74, 218, 219; public scrutiny of, 70–71; resource center strategy of, for multiple demonstration site support, 261–262, 263–274; role of, in society, 287–288; self-liquidating, 75; state-level versus federal involvement of, 287–288; strategies of, for multiple demonstration site support, 262–263. See also Community foundations
Froelich, K. A., "The 990 Return: Beyond the Internal Revenue Service," 141–155
From the Field: "Essential Emotions: The Place of Passion in a Feminist Network," 171–182; "Reducing Funding Risk and Implementing a Fundraising Plan: A Case Study," 275–286; "Youth Development: On the Path Toward Professionalization," 387–401
Frumkin, P., "Fidelity in Philanthropy: Two Challenges to Community Foundations," 65–76; commentary on, 435–437
Fund Raising School, 93, 95
Funding, diversification of, in case study, 275–286
Fundraisers: ethical issues of, 189–191. See also Development professionals
Fundraising: board and staff resistance to, 284; communication with donors and, 107–119; ethical issues in, 189–191; in government-funded organization case study, 275–286; marketing approach to, 280–281, 283–284; on the World Wide Web, 300–301
Fundraising consultants, commission-based compensation of, 190–191

G

General managers, 167
Generalist Physician Initiative, implications of, for resource center development, 267–273
Generosity: income related to, 421–434; measured, 433
Geriatric Interdisciplinary Team Training (GITT) Program, 265–267; implications of, for resource center development, 267–273
Giving: distribution of, by income, 429–432; income related to, 421–434; participation rate variation in, 422–424; percentage of income variations in, 424–429; variability of, 422–429
Globalization, 198–199
Goff, F. H., 77–78
Goldman, L., 173, 177
Goldsmith, M., The Leader of the Future: New Visions, Strategies, and Practices for the Next Era, reviewed, 413–420
Gopher, 299
Governance: board composition and, 250, 252–253; board legitimacy and, 250, 252–253, 255; corporate model of, for nonprofit hospitals, 224–244; executive leadership and, 250, 251–252, 255; of government contracting organizations, 243–259; interorganizational association affiliation and, 253–256; issues of, 244–245; NML articles about, 196–197; nonprofit market sector and, 254; participants in, 244–245; patterns of, factors in, 249–255; patterns of, typology of, 247–249; in public-private community health partnerships, 311–332; shared, between staff and board, 243–259; women in positions of, 121–139. See also Boards; Executive directors
"Governance in Public-Private Community Health Partnerships: A Survey of the Community Care Network," 311–332
Government, on the World Wide Web, 299
"Government, Funded Nonprofits, and Accountability," 51–64
Government-contracting/government-funded organizations: fundraising plan for, in case study, 275–286; nonprofit manager education preferences of, 353, 355, 359–360; patterns of governance in, 243–259, 311–332.

See also Buffer role; Community health partnerships; Governance; Political advocate role
Government funding, reducing reliance on, 275–286
Government regulation, of nonprofit organizations, 70–71
Grantmakers in Health, 262, 273
Grass-roots organizations, 172
Greater Cleveland Associated Foundation, 79
Greenleaf, R., 416
Greenwood normative model of professionalization, 391–393, 398
Griener, E. E., 94
Grunewald, D., "College of St. Monica: A College's Difficult Choice," 183–188
Guide to the Health Care Area, 216
Gwyn, W., 82

H

Haas, P. J., "The Views of Nonprofit Executives on Educating Nonprofit Managers," 349–362
Hahn, A., "Youth Development: On the Path Toward Professionalization," 387–401
Hammack, D. C., "An Interview with Steven A. Minter," 77–84
Harlan, S. L., "Contracting and Patterns of Nonprofit Governance," 243–259
Harris, M., 205; "Editor's Notes," 307–309
Hartford Foundation, John A., resource centers of, 261, 264–273
Havens, J. J., "Money and Magnanimity: New Findings on the Distribution of Income, Wealth, and Philanthropy," 421–434
Health and human services organizations: decline in contributions to, 19–20; fundraising plan for, in case study, 275–286; governance patterns in, 254; state accountability and, in Australia, 51–64; strategic corporate philanthropy to, 19–28. See also Community health partnerships
Health care demonstration sites: foundation strategies for supporting, 262–273; resource centers for, 263–273. See also Community Care Network; Community health partnerships
Health care organizations: consulting for organizational change in, 159–164; in Poland, 363–385. See also Hospitals
Health Care Quality, 268
Health research organizations, executive compensation in, 211
Henkin, A. B., "Communication and Donor Relations: A Social Skills Perspective," 107–119
Hesselbein, F., The Leader of the Future: New Visions, Strategies, and Practices for the Next Era, reviewed, 413–420
Heterogeneity of demand for public good theory, 367–368
Higher education for nonprofit managers, 349–362; chief executive officers' preferences for, 351–360; degree preferences for, 356–360; government-funded organization preferences for, 353, 355, 359–360; nonprofit-specific versus general management, 349–362; organization field of service and preferences for, 352–353, 355–356, 358–360; organization size and preferences for, 352, 354–355, 359; organizational affiliation and preferences for, 353, 356, 358, 359; organizational characteristics and preferences for, 351–360; research questions about, 349–353; study of, methods and measures of, 353–356
Higher education institutions: executive compensation in, 211, 212–214; reliance of, on donors and large gifts, 108; on the World Wide Web, 300–301; with youth development programs, 396–397
Home health care agency, organizational change at, 160–162
Hospital Research and Educational Trust, 230
Hospitals: community, 229; corporate versus philanthropic governance model for, 224–244; executive compensation in, 211, 216–217; funding climate of, 224–225; university affiliation of, 216, 217. See also Corporate governance model for nonprofit hospitals
Hudson, B. A., "Structures of Multinational Nonprofit Organizations," 31–49
Human Interaction Research Institute, 273
Human relations theory, 171
Human resource management, in religious organizations, 3–18
Human resources management, NML articles about, 196–197
Human sexuality research, 289–290

"Humanistic Leadership in the 1990s: Heart, Soul, and Head," 413–420
Hungarian Feminist Network, 171–182; domain and mission of, 172–173; emotions and internal organizational issues of, 175–177; emotions in, 175–178; internal structure of, 174–175; resource dependence and funding of, 173–174; service technology of, 174
Hungary: political climate and feminism in, 177; social organization funding in, 173
Hyer, K., "Resource Centers: A Foundation's Strategy to Support Nonprofit Grantees," 261–274
Hypertext, 298

I

In-service training, for youth development professionals, 395–396
Income: relationship of, to generosity, 421–434; relationship of, to moral status, 432–433. See also Giving
Incorporation status, of public-private community health partnerships, 314, 317–319
INDEPENDENT SECTOR, 142, 143
Individual contributions, as donor alternative to community foundations, 74
Infrastructure, NML articles about, 197–198
"Innovation, Professional Interests, and Nonprofit Organizations: The Case of Health Care in Poland," 363–385
Innovation dissemination: foundation-sponsored resource centers for, 261–274; of health care in Poland, 363–385
Innovation Network, 273
Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management, University of San Francisco, 91–92
Institute of Youth Leaders, 396
Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 990 Returns, 141–155, 209, 215; accountability pressures and broadened use of, 144–146, 150, 151; attractive qualities of, 142–144; data deficiencies of, 146–149; filing deficiencies of, 148; interpreting data from, 149–150, 152–153; IRS use of, 142; organizations required to file, 141; preparing, 151; problems with broadened use of, 146–148; public access to, 145, 152
Internal Revenue Service Statistics of Income (SOI) Division, 142, 143
International alliances, 32
International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations (ICNPO), 365
International foundation funding, 288–289, 291
International nonprofit management, 34, 197, 198–199. See also Multinational nonprofit organizations
International Red Cross, 34, 42, 43–44
Internet: history and development of, 297–298; legal issues of, 301–302; nonprofit organizations and, 297–303; number of users of, 299. See also World Wide Web
Internet service providers (ISPs), 300
Internships, 96
Interorganizational associations, governance patterns in, 250, 253–255
Interpersonal communication, 112. See also Communication in donor relations
"Interview with Steven A. Minter, An," 77–84
"Interview with Susan Berresford, An," 287–292
Irish culture: dance championships and, 404–405; history of traditional music and dance in, 404; national folk theater and, 405–406; nonprofits and, 404–406; revival of, 403, 404–405; Riverdance commercial success and, 403–411

J

Joint ventures, managed support organization/academic center, 95–96

K

Kansas City, community foundations in, 80–81
Kant, I., 189–190
Katsioloudes, M., "Nonprofit Organizations and the Internet," 297–303
Kellogg Foundation, W. K., 262, 263, 398
Kerr, C., 416
KLON/JAWOR survey, 364–366, 375, 379
Knowledge base, nonprofit, management support organization/academic center collaboration on, 92–97

L

Law degrees, 357–358, 359, 360
Leader of the Future, The: New Visions, Strategies, and Practices for the Next Era (Hesselbein, Goldsmith, and Beckhard), reviewed, 413–420
Leadership: books about, 413–420; expressive dimension of, 417–419; humanistic and spiritual approaches to, 413–420; new dimensions of, 415. See also Boards; Executive directors; Nonprofit managers; Staff, executive
Leading and Managing the Expressive Dimension: Harnessing the Hidden Power Source of the Nonprofit Sector (Mason), reviewed, 413–420
Leading with Soul: An Uncommon Journey of Spirit (Bolman and Deal), reviewed, 413–420
Learning Institute for Nonprofit Organizations, 293–295
Legal issues, of the Internet and World Wide Web, 301–302
Legal status, and organizational structure, 43
Leonard Hannah bequest, 79
Lindahl, W. E.: "Ethical Issues in Fundraising," 189–191; "Understanding Major Gift Donors," 85–87
Local unit-central organization arrangements, 34–37. See also Organizational structures

M

Mahoney, J., 183–184, 185
Major donors: books about culture and motivation of, 85–87; diversity of, 108; motivations of, 86–87. See also Donor relations; Donors
Management Center, San Francisco, 91
Management groups, team building for, 165
Management support organizations (MSOs): academic collaboration with, 91–97; growing field of, 90–91; nonprofit education and research work of, 89, 90–91; role of, in increasing nonprofit effectiveness, 92, 93
Marin Community Foundation, 69–70
Marx, J. D., "Corporate Philanthropy and United Way: Challenges for the Year 2000," 19–30
Marx, K., 370
Mason, D. E., Leading and Managing the Expressive Dimension: Harnessing the Hidden Power Source of the Nonprofit Sector, reviewed, 413–420
M.B.A. degree, 357, 358, 359, 360
McDonald, C., "Government, Funded Nonprofits, and Accountability," 51–64
McKinsey and Company, 82–83
Measured generosity, 433
Medical Group Management Association (MGMA), 265, 272
Mental health services organization, organizational change at, 162–164
Mental maps, 158–159, 165
Mental retardation and developmental disabilities (MR/DD) nonprofits, governance patterns in, 254
Mill, J. S., 189–190
Minorities: as major donors, 108; professional associations of, 137
Minter, S. A., interviewed, 77–84
Mission: organizational structure and, 37; trustees' fidelity/infidelity to, 66–75
Mission statements, and pressures for accountability, 145
Mixer, J., 93, 95
"Model for Consulting to Help Effect Change in Organizations, A," 157–169
Moley, R., 78, 79
"Money and Magnanimity: New Findings on the Distribution of Income, Wealth, and Philanthropy," 421–434
Moral entrepreneur theory, 368–369
Moral status, financial status relationship to, 432–433
Motivation: major donor, 86–87; of Polish health care professionals in nonprofit service organizations, 372–383; of private nonprofit providers, theories of, 367–369
M.P.A. degree, 357–358, 359, 360
M.S.W. degree, 357–358, 359, 360
Multihospital systems (MHSs), 228–229, 234, 235, 236
Multinational nonprofit organizations (MNNPs): characteristics and activities of, 33–34; critical resources and, 38–42, 44–46; environmental variation and, 42–46; versus for-profit multinational corporations, 46–47; institutional arrangements and, 42–43, 46; and international variations in nonprofit sector identification, 32–33; versus nonprofits operating in international context, 34; organizational structures of, 31–49

Multiple demonstration sites: communication among, 271–272; replication of, 271; resource centers for, 261–274
Multiple-regression analysis, data envelopment analysis versus, 8
Murray, V., "Do Intentional Efforts to Improve Boards Really Work? The Views of Nonprofit CEOs," 333–348
Mutual funds, 73

N

Narratives, 378
National 4-H Council, 389, 394
National Bankers Association, 137
National Bar Association, 137
National Center on Charitable Statistics, 143
National Collaboration for Youth, 390, 393–394, 397–398
National Network for Youth, 395–396
National Science Foundation Network (NSFNET), 297–298
National Society of Fund Raising Executives, 96
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE) activity codes, 143
National Women's Automotive Association, 136–137
Netting, F. E., "Resource Centers: A Foundation's Strategy to Support Nonprofit Grantees," 261–274
New York Community Trust, 72–73
New York University, Division of Nursing, 266–267
New Zealand, 61
Newark, New Jersey, diocese of U.S. Catholic Church, 14
"990 Return, The: Beyond the Internal Revenue Service," 141–155
Nongovernment organization (NGO) sector, international, 291
Nonprofit Management and Leadership (NML), 103–104, 193–201; contributions to, grouped by category, 194–200; reader's survey, 307, 310
Nonprofit Management Association (NMA), 91, 95
Nonprofit Management Development Center (NMDC), La Salle University, 90, 95–96
Nonprofit managers: education for, 349–362; qualities needed in, 291–292. See also Executive directors; Higher education for nonprofit managers; Leadership; Staff, executive
Nonprofit organization models in, 374–376
Nonprofit organizations: cross-cultural differences in perceptions of, 382–383; organizational structures of, 34–37; role of, in introducing innovation, 364, 367–383; role of, in professional occupational interests, 364, 367–383; on the World Wide Web, 299–301. See also Arts organizations; Government-contracting/government-funded organizations; Health and human services organizations; Higher education institutions; Hospitals; Multinational nonprofit organizations
"Nonprofit Organizations and the Internet," 297–303
"Nonprofit Origins and Impact of Riverdance, The: The Show That Became More Than an Enterprise," 403–411
Nonprofit research and education: CD-ROM sources for, 293–295; Ford Foundation and, 291; IRS 990 Return data and, 142–144, 147, 152–153; issues of concern in, 194–200; management support organization/academic center collaboration on, 91–97; management support organization role in, 89–91; nonprofit manager education and, 349–362; practiced-based researchers and, 103–104
Nonprofit sector: career outlook in, 292, 349; executive compensation in, 207–221; growth of, 349; ideological versus wage concerns in, 208–209; international variations in, 32–33; issues of, overview, 193–200; in Poland, 364–369; support infrastructure of, 89–90
Nonprofit World 1983–1996, reviewed, 293–295
Norton, D., 79
Noszemely, 174
NOVA Southeastern University (Florida), 397

O

Ó Súilleabháin, M., 408–409
Oakes Children's Center, 275–286; environmental threats to, 277–279; fundraising plan of, 279–281; fundraising results of, 281–282;

future fundraising strategies of, 282–283; history of, 276–277; mission of, 283–284
Oireachtas Rince na Cruinne, 404–405, 409
O'Neill, F., 404
O'Neill, M., 91–92; "An Interview with Susan Berresford," 287–292
Organic self-interest, 381
Organization history, organizational structure and, 37–38
Organization size: and chief executive officers' preferences for nonprofit manager education, 352, 354–355, 359; and Community Care Network partnership governance, 322, 323; and executive compensation, 210, 213, 214–215, 216, 217, 218, 219; and nonprofit hospital adoption of corporate governance model, 227, 234, 235, 236, 237–238. See also Budget size; Corporation size
Organization theory, and role of emotions, 171, 180–181
Organizational age: and female governance, 126–127; organizational structure and, 37–38
Organizational change: approaches to, 158–159; consulting model for, 157–169; health care organization case studies of, 159–164; pacing of, 166; process models of, 334–335, 345–346; processes and outcomes relationship in, 345–346; propositions about, 164–166. See also Board intentional change efforts; Change management
Organizational development (OD), 158, 159; consulting model for, 159–167; evaluation of, 159
Organizational learning, 158, 164
Organizational performance: board change impact on, 333, 343–345; measures of, 344
Organizational structures: alternative, nonhierarchical, 174–177, 178, 181; change management consulting and, 160–164; decision making and authority flows by type of, 35; determinants of, 37–46; environmental determinants of, 38; environmental variation and, 42–46; factors in, 37–38; local resource density and, 39–41, 44–46; of multinational nonprofit organizations, 31–49; NML articles on, 194–196; range of nonprofit, 34–37; reliance on sales and, 41
Osaka, Japan, community foundations in, 81
O'Shanahan, M., 185, 186, 187
Oster, S. M., "Executive Compensation in the Nonprofit Sector," 207–221
Ostrower, F., Why the Wealthy Give: The Culture of Elite Philanthropy, reviewed, 85–87

P

Patman, W., 70–71
Patterson, New Jersey, diocese of U.S. Catholic Church, 14
Personnel assignment, social skills and, 115
Pew, 263
Ph.D. degree, 357–358, 359, 360
Pittsburgh Survey, 78
Poland, 363–385; health care field in, 365–368, 372–377; historical background in, 369–372; nonprofit founders in, 365, 366; nonprofit health care organizations in, 363–385; nonprofit organization fields of service in, 365–366, 376; nonprofit sector in, 364–369; political-economic reform in, 363–364, 365; professional aspirations to class power in, 369–372; professional interests and formal organization in, 372–377; professional interests and public benefit status in, 377–379; social organizations in, 1960-1983, 365, 370–373; state budget in, by category, 368
Policy-making, IRS 990 Return data for, 144
Political action committee (PAC) directors, women as, prevalence and factors in, 125, 132–136
Political advocate role, 245–247; governance patterns and, 249–257
Political systems, and state-nonprofit relationships, 61–62
"Popular Nonprofit Management Research Sources on CD-ROM," 293–295
Priest shortage in U.S. Catholic Church, 3–4; data envelopment analysis of, 8–17; diaconate expansion for, 5–6, 15–16; diocese efficiency ratings and, 11, 15; managerial options for dealing with, 5–8; priest reassignment and redistribution for, 7–8,

12–14, 15; priestless parishes for, 6–7, 12, 13, 15–16; variables measured for, 10–11
Prince, R. A., Seven Faces of Philanthropy, The: A New Approach to Cultivating Major Donors, reviewed, 85–87
Princeton ratings, 213
Principal-agent theory, applied to state-nonprofit relationship, 52–53, 62–63
Private foundations, as donor alternative to community foundations, 74
Pro-choice organizations, Hungarian. See also Hungarian Feminist Network
Process models of change, 334–335, 345–346
Prochoice organizations, Hungarian, 172–173
Professional conferences, management support organization and academic, 95
Professional contribution administrators, impact of, on corporate contributions, 22, 23, 26
Professionalization, normative model of, 391–393, 398
Professionalization of philanthropy, 72, 145, 435–437
Professionalization of youth development, 387–401
Programmatic change theory, 334–335
Prospect research, 282–283; and donor confidentiality, 190
Public-private partnerships, 311–312. See also Community health partnerships; Government-contracting/government-funded organizations
Public relations model, 110
Public sector accountability: in Australia, 51–64; in Australian state-nonprofit partnerships, 51–64; centralized decision making and, 58–59; constraints on, 54–61; departmental knowledge deficits and, 57–58; departmental unwillingness and, 59; historical legacy and, 55–56; interdepartmental coordination and, 59; political systems and, 61–62; reactive monitoring and, 60; resource limitations and, 56; staff role clash and, 57; staff role overload and, 56–57

Q

Quality, communication of, 109
Queensland Health, 54–60

R

Raley, G. A., "Youth Development: On the Path Toward Professionalization," 387–401
Reactive monitoring, 60
"Reducing Funding Risk and Implementing a Fundraising Plan: A Case Study," 275–286
Refreezing stage of change, 334
Regression analysis, data envelopment analysis versus, 16
Religious affiliation, and executive compensation, 211–212, 213, 215, 219
Religious organizations: donor motivation in, 87; human resource management in, 3–18
Replication and Program Services, 273
Reproductive health, 289
Research Reports: "Building the Nonprofit Sector Knowledge Base: Can Academic Centers and Management Support Organizations Come Together?", 89–97; "Money and Magnanimity: New Findings on the Distribution of Income, Wealth, and Philanthropy," 421–434; "Nonprofit Organizations and the Internet," 297–303; "The First Seven Years of Nonprofit Management and Leadership," 193–201
"Resource Centers: A Foundation's Strategy to Support Nonprofit Grantees," 261–274
Resource centers (RCs): downsides of, 272–273; examples of, 264–267; foundation goals and, 268; foundations' use of, for multiple demonstration site support, 261–274; funding of, 264; implementation guidelines for, 267–273; leadership of, 268–269; location of, 268–269; problem resolution role of, 270–271; research about, 263–264; resources about, 273; scope of responsibilities of, 269–270; tactics of, 271–273; taxonomy of, 263; timing of start-up of, 269
Resource density, and multinational nonprofit organizational structures, 39–42, 44–46
Resource dependence, and organizational structure, 38–39
Restricted gifts, donor communication and, 107–109
Riverdance, 403–411; commercial success of, 403–411; dilemmas of, 408–410; genesis of, 405, 406–408

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, 263, 264
Robinson, M. G., "The Views of Nonprofit Executives on Educating Nonprofit Managers," 349–362
Roman Catholic Church. See Priest shortage in U.S. Catholic Church
Rosso, H., 95
Russell Sage Foundation, 78

S

Saidel, J. R., "Contracting and Patterns of Nonprofit Governance," 243–259
Saint Cloud, Minnesota, diocese of U.S. Catholic Church, 12, 13
Saint Petersburg, Florida, diocese of U.S. Catholic Church, 12, 13
Sales, reliance on, and organizational structure, 41
San Francisco Foundation, and Buck Trust, 66–72
Santa Clara County (California), survey about nonprofit manager education, 351–360
Schervish, P. G., "Money and Magnanimity: New Findings on the Distribution of Income, Wealth, and Philanthropy," 421–434
Schilling, B., 91–92
Search-and-choose stage of change, 334–335
Section 501(c) organizations, 141. See also Internal Revenue Service 990 Return
Self-disclosure, 109
Self-interest, organic, 381
Servant Leadership (Greenleaf), 416
Seven Faces of Philanthropy, The: A New Approach to Cultivating Major Donors, reviewed, 85–87
Shadow price, 9–10. See also Data envelopment analysis
Shaiko, R. G., "Female Participation in Association Governance and Political Representation: Women as Executive Directors, Board Members, Lobbyists, and Political Action Committee Directors," 121–139
Shakely, J., Commentary, 435–436
Shared governance, 247–249
Siamsa Tire, 405–406, 407
Simon, J. G., 67–69
Slack variable, 9. See also Data envelopment analysis
Smith, M., 185–187
Smith, R., "Building the Nonprofit Sector Knowledge Base: Can Academic Centers and Management Support Organizations Come Together?", 89–97
Social change, community foundation as convener of, 77–83
Social choice arrangements, 36–37
Social contract, 199–200
Social issue analysis, 21, 23
Social penetration theory, 109
Social schemata, and choice of nonprofit organizational form, 382–383
Social script, 377–378
Social services organizations, executive compensation in, 214–216
Social services studies, community foundation as catalyst of, 77–83
Social skills: assessment of, 113–115; defined, 111; and donor relations, 111–116; goal-directed, 112; interpersonal communication and, 112; multidimensionality of, 112; Riggio's inventory of, 113–114; situational, 112–113; training, 114–115
Sokolowski, S. W., "Innovation, Professional Interests, and Nonprofit Organizations: The Case of Health Care in Poland," 363–385
Soul, in leadership, 416–417
Source-message-channel receiver model of communication, 109
Springfield College (Massachusetts), 396
Staff, executive: buffer role played by, 245–247; and governance of contracting organizations, 243–259; political advocate role played by, 245–247; resistance of, to fundraising business, 284; selection of, 256; and shared governance with boards, 243–259. See also Executive directors; Leadership; Nonprofit managers
Staff-dominant governance, 247–249
Stakeholder analysis, 21, 23
State-nonprofit relationships: in Australia, 51–64; political systems and, 61–62; principal-agent theory applied to, 52–53, 62–63
Status: nonprofit organizational form and, 377–379, 381–383; professional interests and, 377–379, 381–383

Status generalization process, 377–378
Stone, M. M., 194
Strategic fundraising, 27–28
Strategic philanthropy: defined, 20–21; future research for, 27; impact of, on United Way contributions, 21–28; management activities of, 21, 23. See also Corporate philanthropy
Strategic planning: corporate, and strategic philanthropy, 20–21; creative, 165, 166–167
"Structures of Multinational Nonprofit Organizations," 31–49
Studies of social issues and services, community foundation as catalyst of, 77–83
Support Centers of America, 91
Support for Nonprofit Management in San Francisco, 90–91
Support infrastructure, 89–90. See also Management support organizations
Survey and Analysis of Management Support Organizations, 1994–1995, 90
Survey of Consumer Finances (SCF), 422, 423–424, 426–428, 429–432
Survey of Giving and Volunteering in the United States (G & V), 422–423, 424, 425, 428, 431, 433
Systemic approach, to change management consulting, 159–167
Systems theory, applied to donor relations, 109–111

T

Tax filing. See Internal Revenue Service 990 Return
Tax Reform Act of 1969, 70–71
Tax status, and female governance, 127–128, 134
Tax structures, and organizational structure, 43–44
Taxpayers' Bill of Rights, 145
Teams: donor relations, 115–116; management, 165
Technical efficiency measurement, 9. See also Data envelopment analysis
Technology management, 198. See also Internet; World Wide Web
Technology Report, "Popular Nonprofit Management Research Sources on CD-ROM," 293–295
Think Tank, 95
Trade association structures, 36; in multinational nonprofits, 46
Training, social skills, 114–115
Training curriculum development, management support organization/academic center collaboration on, 94–95
Transaction cost approach, 369
Transmission Control Protocol and Internet Protocol (TCP/IP), 299
Trusteeship, NML articles about, 196–197
Trusts, fidelity/infidelity to donor's intent of, 66–75
Two-way symmetrical communication, 110–111
Tyminski, R., "Reducing Funding Risk and Implementing a Fundraising Plan: A Case Study," 275–286

U

Umbrella organizations, multinational nonprofits structured as, 32
"Understanding Major Gift Donors," 85–87
Unfreezing stage of change, 334
United Way: corporate variables in contributions to, 22–28; credibility of, and corporate contributions, 22, 24, 25; decline in contributions to, 19–20; strategic philanthropy and, 19–28
University of Chicago, 397
University of Minnesota, 397
University of Northern Iowa, 396
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, 397
U.S. Catholic Church, priest shortage in. See Priest shortage in U.S. Catholic Church

V

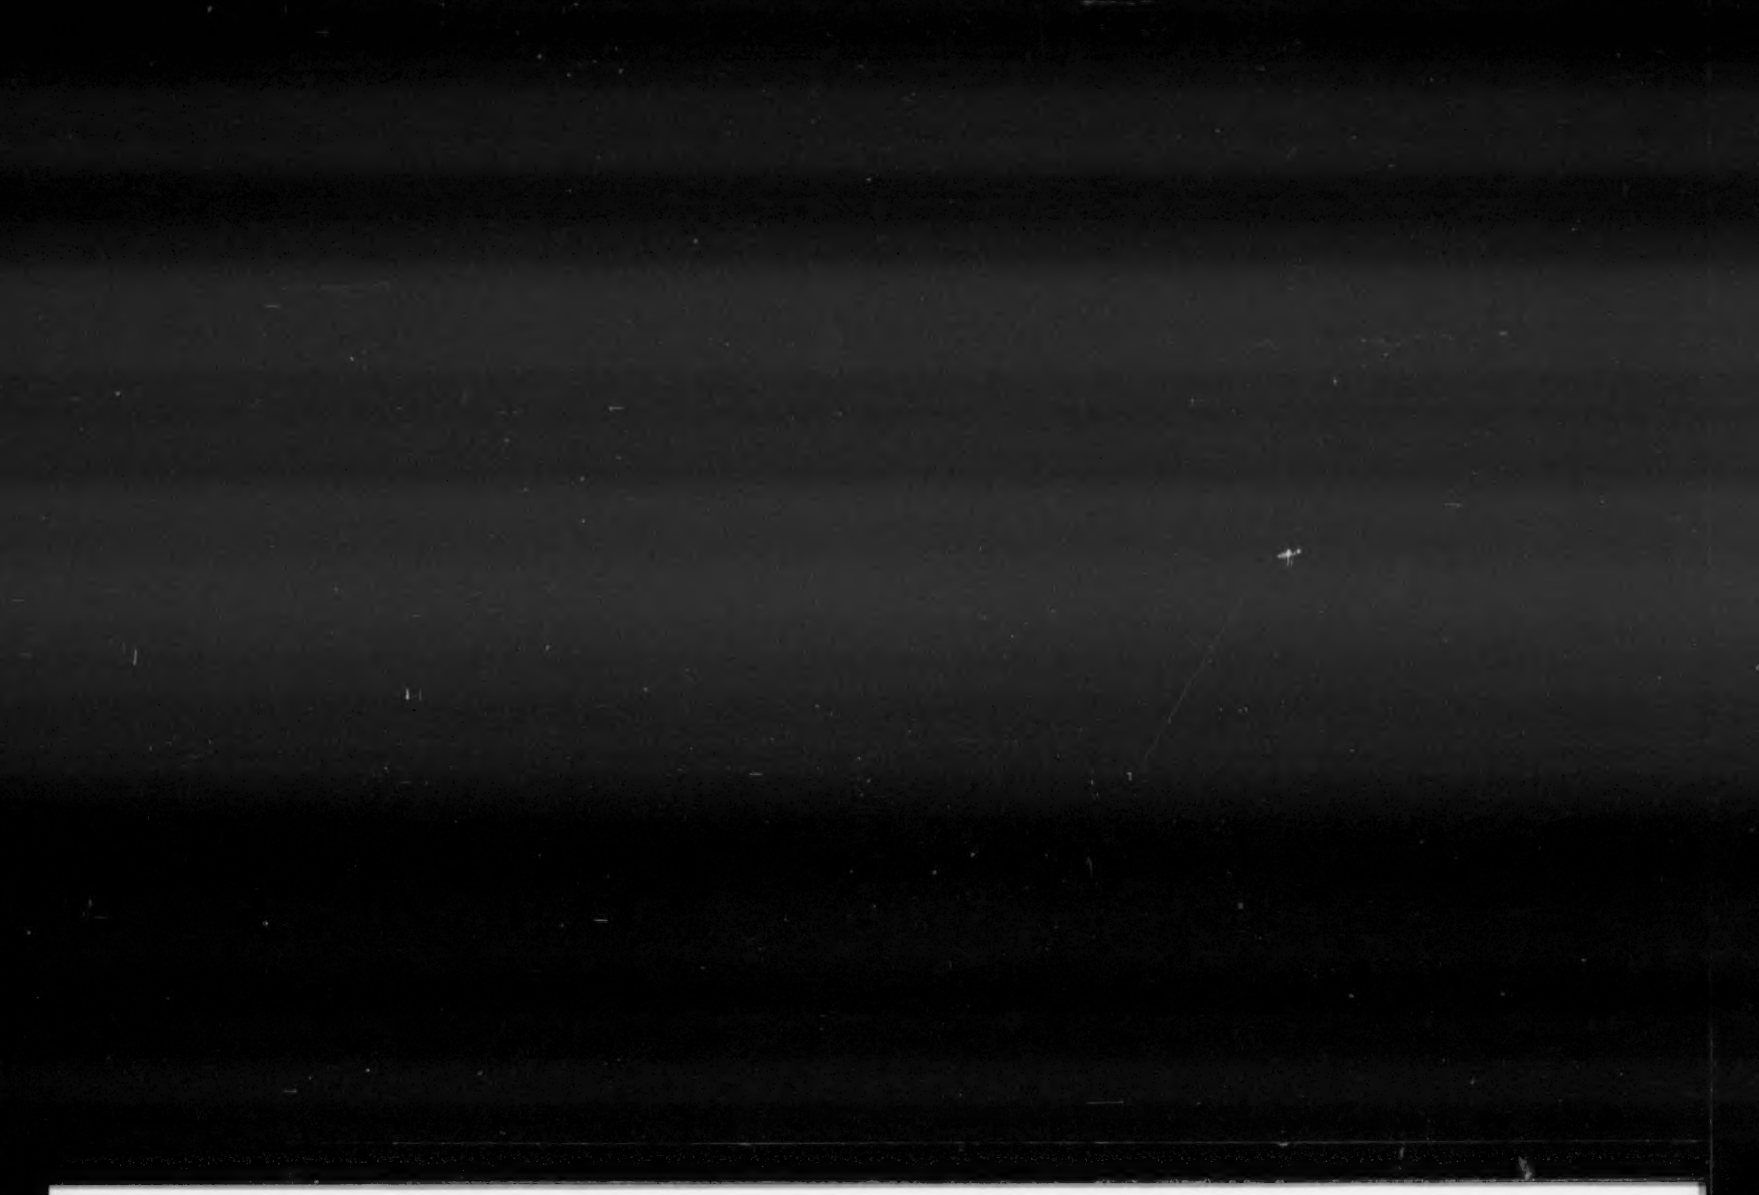
Value analysis, 21, 23
Venice, Florida, diocese of U.S. Catholic Church, 12–14
"Views of Nonprofit Executives on Educating Nonprofit Managers, The," 349–362
Volunteer Center of Orange County (Southern California), 96
Volunteer organizations, emotions in, 178–180
Volunteers, emotional work versus emotional labor of, 178–180

W

Wadsworth, H., 81
Washington, D.C. association headquarters, as factor in female governance, 122, 127
Washington, D.C. government relations offices, and female head lobbyists/PAC directors, 132, 133
Wealth: relationship of, to generosity, 421–434; relationship of, to moral status, 432–433. See also Giving
Weiner, B. J.: "Governance in Public-Private Community Health Partnerships: A Survey of the Community Care Network," 311–332; "The Adoption of the Corporate Governance Model by Nonprofit Organizations," 223–242
Weldon, R., "Nonprofit Organizations and the Internet," 297–303
Welfare reform, 288
Whelan, M., 407, 410
Why the Wealthy Give: The Culture of Elite Philanthropy (Ostrower), reviewed, 85–87
Williams, F. G., "Resource Centers: A Foundation's Strategy to Support Nonprofit Grantees," 261–274
Wilson, G., "Essential Emotions: The Place of Passion in a Feminist Network," 171–182
Women: as association executive directors, 125–132; in association governance, 121–139; executive compensation levels of, 211, 212, 215, 216, 218; as head lobbyists and PAC directors, 132–136; leadership positions of, organizational factors in, 125–132; as major donors, 108; in nonprofit governance, 121–123
Women's professional associations, 136–137
Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, 264
World Wide Web (WWW): advertising potential of, 300; browser programs for, 298–299; fundraising on, 300–301; history and development of, 298; legal issues of, 301–302; local nonprofit universities on, 300–301; nonprofit agencies on, 301; nonprofit organizations on, 299–301; number of users of, 299; search engines for, 301; U.S. government on, 299. See also Internet

Y

Yearbook of International Organizations, 32, 33
Young, D. R., 194, 197; "Editor's Notes," 1–2, 103–105, 205–206, 307–309 "The First Seven Years of Nonprofit Management and Leadership," 193–201
Young, S., "Popular Nonprofit Management Research Sources on CD-ROM," 293–295
Youth development: career awareness for, 397–398, 399; characteristics of, 388–390; core competencies and skill standards for, 394–395; ethical code of conduct for, 393; heterogeneity in field of, 393–394; National 4-H Council research and knowledge taxonomy for, 394–395; normative model for field of, 391–393, 398; occupational titles in, 390–391, 393–394; philosophical orientation of, 389; as process of human growth and development, 388; professional association for, 393, 398–399; professionalization of, 387–401; programs of, diversity and scale of, 389–390; programs of, frameworks for, 389; systematic theory of, 392
"Youth Development: On the Path Toward Professionalization," 387–401
Youth Development and Delinquency Prevention Administration (YDDPA), 388
Youth development professionals, 390–391, 392; career awareness for, 397–398, 399; core competencies and skill standards for, 394–395; education for, 392–393, 395–397, 399; heterogeneity among, 393–394; in-service training programs for, 395–396; preservice education programs for, 396–397; professional identification of, 398, 399

Z


Zaleski, P. A., "Efficiency in Religious Organizations," 3–18
Zech, C. E., "Efficiency in Religious Organizations," 3–18